

ANNOUNCEMENT

Bruce Torgerson will be utilizing his extensive knowledge in production cutting developed through numerous years of sales and operations experience managing CTI's Owatonna production cutting facility, as well as similar responsibilities at previous employers, to embark on the position of Business Development Manager Production Cutting. Bruce's experience is expected to take us to a new level of growth and depth with the CTI customer base. This development opportunity will require commitment and coordination by the entire sales team under Bruce's direction to accomplish our growth goals in utilizing the assets we have invested.

Bruce will be scheduling facility visits to insure all team members have the knowledge and skills to attack this market effectively through joint sales calls. Join me in congratulating and supporting Bruce in this important role.
