

ANNOUNCEMENT

Chicago Tube and Iron Company is pleased to announce the promotion of Amanda Klimek to Marketing Manager – Stainless & Aluminum.

Amanda began her career with Chicago Tube and Iron in June 2014 as a Product Specialist. She has a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Robert Morris University. Amanda also has a Master's degree in Strategic Leadership from Spring Arbor University, which she obtained through CTI's tuition reimbursement program.

In her new position Amanda will report directly to Dan Deffenbaugh, Marketing Director for Stainless & Aluminum, and will oversee the department's product specialists.

Please join us in congratulating Amanda on this well-deserved promotion.
