

ANNOUNCEMENT

Chicago Tube and Iron is pleased to announce the addition of Megan Ryan as Logistics Coordinator in our Corporate Transportation department, effective October 18, 2018. She will be reporting directly to Scott Langford, Corporate Transportation & Logistics Manager.

Megan's 5 years of experience in transportation and logistics will further contribute to our goal of reducing transportation costs and help drive our strategic initiative of developing logistics as a competitive advantage.

Megan is happily married to her husband Jeff and they have two children, Riley 11 and Adeline 6.

Megan enjoys hiking, camping, fishing and watching football and hockey.

Please join us in congratulating Megan on her new career with Chicago Tube and Iron!
